

haubrok foundation
Strausberger Pl. 19
10243 Berlin
TEL. 0172/21 09 525

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Werbung: Adapted for Use and Provisional Prop
A 48-Hour Display of Quality Framing Materials

BERLIN, June 2021 - haubrok foundation announces the European premiere of a film and five recent photographs by Christopher Williams.

On 29 April, haubrok foundation opened Werbung: Adapted for Use, an exhibition featuring printed matter, works on paper, films, hand-painted signage, and wall coverings by Christopher Williams. For the final 48 hours of the exhibition, from 25 - 27 June, the exhibition will be rehung to present five recent framed photographs by the artist. Additionally, on 25 June at 17h30, haubrok foundation in cooperation with Capitain Petzel will premiere the artist's new film Provisional Prop at Kino International.

Christopher Williams (b. 1956, Los Angeles) lives and works in Cologne and is professor of photography at the Kunstakademie Düsseldorf.

Kochgeschirr: Adapted for Use

Capitain Petzel, Karl-Marx-Allee 45, 28 April - 17 July

Werbung: Adapted for Use

haubrok foundation, Strausberger Platz 19, 29 April - 24 June

A 48-Hour Display of Quality Framing Materials

haubrok foundation, Strausberger Platz 19, 25 - 27 June,

Opening: 25 June, 19h

Provisional Prop

Kino International, Karl-Marx-Allee 33, 25 June, Screening: 17h30

+++

MODEL